MONEY TALKS: Teaching Your Children How to Manage Money

Guest Speaker is Jared (Jay) Soucie, New York Life Insurance Company

About the Speaker:

Jay was born and raised in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and took a rather untraditional path to becoming a Financial Services Professional with New York Life. Beginning in 1996, he spent eight years in the United States Army as a Military Policeman. When he exited the military in 2004, he was a combat veteran of operations in both the Eastern European and Southeast Asian theaters. For the next eight years, he worked in the Electronic Payments industry. Most recently, Jay has made a career with New York Life by helping families and business owners protect, accumulate and distribute assets in a tax efficient manner. His passion is helping people plan and protect their future and those of their families. Jay is married and has five children, the youngest being 10-month-old twin girls.
